Council will not always have the same people as you know. Therefore, the chances of having like-minded people at the helm is slim to none.

So yes, you're right, we do see things very differently. I believe in cover and protect, you believe in divide and conquer. Too many chefs in the kitchen is never a good idea as most know.

Don't assume Friends of Folsom Parkway is THE group looking after the wetlands. That just makes you look foolish. I doesn't sound like you are that intimately known by all after all.
